SOME BACKGROUND ON WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT LOCAL PLANS

- Under the federal Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA), local workforce development boards must develop and submit to the Governor a comprehensive 4-year plan. Los Angeles County WDB's current Local Plan identifies and describes partnerships, services, and workforce development activities carried out in the County.
- No later than March 31, 2023, the County must submit to the State a biennial (two-year) update to the current 4-year Local Plan, which covers July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2025.

OUR DISCUSSION TODAY: ECONOMIC RECOVERY AND THE ROLE OF THE WORKFORCE SYSTEM

As the economy continues to adjust to the endemic phase of COVID-19, businesses and the public are becoming accustomed to a fluctuating recovery characterized by shifting demand and supply side priorities and needs.

For the workforce development system, a return to “business as usual” means adapting to a new normal. This process brings with it a wide range of challenges, along, potentially, with significant opportunities.

FOR YOUR CONSIDERATION AND OUR DISCUSSION:

4

- How can the workforce system best support job seekers within current labor market conditions?
- How can the workforce system best support businesses of all types and sizes in the current economy?
- What changes to the labor market resulting from the pandemic appear likely to change skills requirements for jobs?
- How have attitudes toward work, jobs, and hiring changed as a result of the pandemic and what do these changes suggest about how we prepare workers for jobs?

NEXT STEPS:

November 2022 – Gather the public input from these meetings

December 2022 – Synthesize public input and update the Local and Regional Plans

January – February 2023 – Release Local Plan draft for 30-day public commentary period

March 2023 – Submit Local and Regional Area Plans to the California Workforce Development Board
